The first three named are past presidents and Freeman will be the new head soon.

Elgin Bayless Gives Figures And Facts On Highway Deals

J. Elgin Bayless, chairman for the club, for personally, of the State Highway Commission, recently told the State Association of County Commissioners, that the state had expended for road and bridge improvements in 1947, and what was in view for 1948. Figures and expenditures were immense, showing that such work in Florida was big business.

Notwithstanding that the Department had a big backlog of money from State and Federal resources, conditions were such that only 13 millions of dollars were expended on the road program work in 1946.

During 1947, 308 road jobs were completed, costing over 21 millions, the improvements consisting of 112 miles of highway and near 14,000 feet of bridge work. This was a high record for the Department. The program for 1948 is expected to surpass that figure.

That the original road improvement plan made in 1940, was fixed at 121 million, and the 1947 expenses exceed the budget income by $1 million.

The 1948 budget, even though it contemplates exhausting the reserves, and is predicated on receipt from Federal participation, in the sum of 21, plus, millions, nevertheless will exceed anticipated resources by 16 millions, and we have no nesting information that the Federal Government will continue in the participating program, although bills are in Congress, providing for such appropriations for the coming three years.

Joshua Ferris Talks About Teamwork By Glades Communities

Jack Johnson, who had charge of the Lion program, Wednesday noon, introduced as his guest speaker, Joshua Ferris, Jr., executive vice-president of the United States Sugar Company, of Clewiston, who selected his topic as "Teamwork" and he gave a very suggestive and helpful address.

Mr. Ferris in his talk stated that he deemed it a favor and privilege to come to speak before the club, for he personally, of the State Highway Commission, recently told the State Association of County Commissioners, that the state had expended for road and bridge improvements in 1947, and what was in view for 1948. Figures and expenditures were immense, showing that such work in Florida was big business.

Local Reserve Unit To Hold Meeting

A unit of the Organized Reserve Corps will hold their bi-monthly meeting at Camp Oceola on the fourth of this month. Capt. E. M. Lovely will be the instructor for the training period. His subject will be on weapons of the infantry battalion. Following the lecture a movie picture will be shown on Infantry weapons and organization, states that members of the local group are in morning, with his personnel, and his sound truck, and that man was no other than J. Tom Watson, Sr., who is the father of Tom Watson Jr., one of our esteemed citizens, and the manager of the local radio station.

However, he has had, spoken here but recently on the issue of his campaign, he did not speak here on this visit, but tried a bit of personal visiting, and enjoying a dinner at his son's home.

He did speak at other points north and west on his route. Many people here have personal acquaintance with this fine and efficient Attorney General and most every one else has a passing knowledge of this man and official. Personally he is very fine and genial man to meet, possessing a personality of his own, and a man of his own convictions, which he speaks without fear or favor.

McCarty publicize 7) his political literature and advertisements that he is a Cattleman, Legislator, Veteran, Grower, Business man and Civic worker, and that his experience in these lines makes him a good man for the Governorship, and he has many followers throughout the state who back that claim.

McCarty is a smooth and convincing speaker and preside his campaign in a very able manner, putting his oratorical acquisitions into full use. As he unfolded his platform for the Governorship nomination, listeners found many things to commend and he made friends in his race.

Many people here have personal acquaintance with this fine and efficient Attorney General and most every one else has a passing knowledge of this man and official. Personally he is very fine and genial man to meet, possessing a personality of his own, and a man of his own convictions, which he speaks without fear or favor.

McCarty publicize 7) his political literature and advertisements that he is a Cattleman, Legislator, Veteran, Grower, Business man and Civic worker, and that his experience in these lines makes him a good man for the Governorship, and he has many followers throughout the state who back that claim.

McCarty is a smooth and convincing speaker and preside his campaign in a very able manner, putting his oratorical acquisitions into full use. As he unfolded his platform for the Governorship nomination, listeners found many things to commend and he made friends in his race.

mission, recently told the State Association of County Commissioners, that the state had expended for road and bridge improvements in 1947, and what was in view for 1948. Figures and expenditures were immense, showing that such work in Florida was big business.

Notwithstanding that the Department had a big backlog of money from State and Federal resources, conditions were such that only 13 millions of dollars were expended on the road program work in 1946.

During 1947, 308 road jobs were completed, costing over 21 millions, the improvements consisting of 112 miles of highway and near 14,000 feet of bridge work. This was a high record for the Department. The program for 1948 is expected to surpass that figure.

The 1948 budget, even though it contemplates exhausting the reserves, and is predicated on receipt from Federal participation, in the sum of 21, plus, millions, nevertheless will exceed anticipated resources by 16 millions, and we have no nesting information that the Federal Government will continue in the participating program, although bills are in Congress, providing for such appropriations for the coming three years.

a suburb of Clewiston, as he always enjoyed the comrades and fellowship of its people.

Continuing he stated, the future of Belle Glade and the entire Glades area, lies upon the willingness of its people to work as a team in co-operating to make it better for the common good. To work both as players and stockholders, for the success of one community helps the other, and their combined businesses. That there never was a more opportune time for such team work than right now.

He cited results of team work in the improved conditions of the highways, the pretty golf club at Belle Glade, and support of the pending water control project, and proposed educational improvements. That there are so many mutual interests in the various communities, depending upon his own and his neighbors business, that there should be no hesitancy in joining and working in co-operation.

That in so far as the U. S. Sugar Company, it had varied interest, which it was throwing into the co-operative movement, as that corporation desires to be friendly and helpful to the region, and have a part in advancement and resultant prosperity.

Lion W. R. Dickinson, as installing officer, welcomed C. R. Williams, James Wierago and J. T. Harrell into club membership. W. L. Cunningham, entertainment chairman, stated that his committee was working on a deal for a benefit with the Rotary and the Business and Professional Woman's Club assisting, for the near future. This will consist of a three part skit, each club presenting a portion of the program. Plans are being made for arranging a public dinner, for the purpose of raising funds for the proposed swimming pool project, which for good reasons has been a big demand.

handshake and gracious smile endured himself to all who came before him. He was a devout religionist.

In boyhood he learned the printer's trade and spent more than 20 years he handled the "stick" serving for over 25 years as a member of the staff of the St. Cloud Tribune and News, as well as papers in West Virginia and Ohio. Never did he come into Belle Glade on his missionary work, but what he stopped at the Herald office to pay his respects to me, and I am sure going to miss his friendly calls. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Church in St. Cloud, largely attended, with burial in Mt.
Peace cemetery there.

I shall always have favorable remembrance of my residence in the home of Mrs. L. Nelson at Clifton, for she was a most pleasant and genial landlady.
Nor will I ever forget the one "key" which she had for the front door. On occasion we had to hunt for it as diligently as we could for grandpa's glasses or false teeth.

Rev. Carl Moberg, of Pahokee, in a talk before the local Lions, paid this city a fine compliment, when he said, "Belle Glade is out in front, may you stay there. Your progress awakens other communities who seek to keep some kind of pace with you, and thus your success aids the entire Glades area. You have the ability and leaders to do, you have a voluntary and fellowship, envied by all the country. If someone says it can't be done, then you do it on Belle Glade, and soon it will be a reality."

We all rejoice that the rabbage boys have realized a bit of the value of the rice in demand and the increase in price for this green product. The celery boys have found the weather very much against their crop, too hot, too hot!

Did you get fooled on April ster stuff is practiced quite as these days as in the past.

It is rather amusing to me to see what changes takes place in a man over his customary manners, when he gets into the race for a political office.
Usually he is a quiet man, un-demonstrative in his actions, slow to participate in debate, and not prone to make visits to the homes of his fellow citizen, or be interested in their welfare. Lo, as a candidate, he becomes active if not noisy, comes up with a smile and a glad hand or a heavy smack on the back or sinner, and actually wants to know and prospering.
Have you noticed? Just wait, the candidate will be around to see you prior to May 4th.

If indications do not change for the better, it looks as some of our veterans and our youth will be back in the uniform and serving in the services, against what nation, you guess?

Have you picked out your man or men who you will support for the high office of state and county government? Sometimes good men in the field.
Nothing counts a state representative having a strong state Government and in these troubled and uncertain times only the best men should be in such offices.

Congress did not see eye to eye on the Income Tax slash, so the President is now wearing a black eye in his prestige as the nation's leader, by the overwhelming vote which Congress gave on the rejection of his veto. The House voted 311 to 88 to override the veto, and the Senate 77 to 19, giving the margin of 64 votes more than required by the two-thirds vote.
The slash was $1.5 billion, and represents a sum of around $4,800,000. The provisions reverts back to January 1, 1948, as the date of its effectiveness.

The long needed rain came on last Friday afternoon, in quantities that thoroughly soaked the parched ground, and refreshed the pastures and crops.

Baptist men had a great time at their get together on Thursday night, when a Spaghetti was the dish de resistance. Everyone had a swell time.

The campaign for the Red Cross drive had not come to an end, before the like plea for the National Cancer drive begins its activities throughout the county. The mass giving of the county to the various projects for public betterment runs up into big figures. Would it not be a wise move, and save much soliciting and hard work, if a County Welfare Club Association be formed, a budget set up, from which all these philanthropic bodies could be awarded a quota? It seems to be a plea to give and give to the time, and to men in business this continual solicitation is becoming a burden. In some instances the donations in aggregate are far more than can be deducted for charity in Income Tax returns.

Seems well to be located in a new and nicely furnished home, which you can call your own. After one has been rapping homes in Florida for a decade or more, subject to other people's rights of domain, to see your own loss is something.

Grove owners up in Osceola county are finding that their excellent citrus crops are not moving with customary rapidity, or bringing war time prices.
In fact most of the fruit is still on the trees, and few buyers.
These groves are indeed facing a severe financial loss. Fruit was never better, both as to size and flavor, and its economic loss not to have a sales outlet.

Just go out to our athletic fields and eat your eyes over those improved areas, and you will travel far and wide, before you will find a layout equal to what we have at the Memorial field. The diamond is fast this year, but next year it will be entirely sodded.

At the opening of the seventh runs to tie and three to win, and believe it or not, the Rams got the three. Farmer hit to center, Williams got a swift ball on his shoulder, Leathers and Harrell pulled out long hits, scoring Williams, Farmer and there were some hilarious re-

Roger Cunningham, former football star, is now acting as Coach Cooke's right hand man, in baseball.

Couch Cooke states that it costs real money to operate a high school baseball team this year, as bats, balls, gloves and other equipment are out of sight by the dozen, bats, $3.00 each.
That is the reason that such bats are kept busy recovering balls knocked out of the playing field.

A new entrance has been established for the baseball field, and the Rams did not have to be found plenty of parking space for all cars.

Things That Concern Glades Cattlemen

Dr. Walter J. Sheely of the Extension Service has issued the following bulletin which is of interest to all Glades cattlemen:

The 1948 Calf Crop is already on the ground. Cows with calves at foot should be on good pasture, have salt, mineral mixture, and plenty of fresh water in order that they may produce sufficient milk for calf development. Keeping the cow herd in good condition during the grazing season will increase the 1949 calf crop.

Calf Weights - Calf Grazing —Good quality heavy weight calves at weaning time are most profitable. The question is asked, "How many cows will a certain range carry?"

The following are the ideas. Cows weighing 750 to 1000 pounds need 70 to 75 pounds of grass per day to maintain their body weight and raise a calf. This amount of grass contains about 1-3 dry matter and 10 to 12 pounds of digestive nutrients.
Six to 8 pounds of digestive nutrients are needed to maintain the cow and the remaining nutrients are needed to produce 10 to 15 pounds of milk for the calf. Milk is the best calf food in the world.
Records show that calves on moderately grazed ranges are 11 per cent heavier at weaning time than calves on heavily grazed ranges. This means that 89 cents of every dollar of gross range produced as many pounds of calf as 100 cents produced on heavy grazed areas.
Look over your pastures and use your judgment as to the number of cattle they will support.

Parasites and Stomach Worms attack calves, make them unthrifty and emaciated and cause many to die. Phenothiazine is recommended for the treatment and removal of worms. Dosage for calves ranges from 25 grams (1 ounce) to 50 grams, depending on the size, and for cattle of breeding age 60 grams. Phenothiazine is easily administered in gelatine capsules with a balling gun or in liquid form as a drench or may be mixed with grain and fed individually. One or two treatments 10 days to 2 weeks apart will save many animals.
See your county agent or veterinarian.

Scree Worms are devastating in their attack on young animals. New born calves (during April, May and June) may suffer greatly from scree worm infestation and if not treated promptly losses will be heavy.
Treating navels of new born calves with iodine and moxar 62 will prevent swollen joints and scree worm infestation.

Horn Flies are pests causing serious damage to cattle.
Cleaning up manure piles and destroying breeding places will aid in fly control. Spraying all animals with DDT every 3 to 6 weeks (depending on weather) will give good results in fly control. Use the following: 1 pound of wettable powder containing 50 per cent DDT to 4 gallons of water.

Water is most essential in beef cattle production. It may either make or break the cattleman. Excess water needs to be controlled. Three years ago this summer cattle died from starvation and thirst.
Now is the time to prepare for the summer water supply by getting pumps and windmills in condition to meet the drought.

State Seining Crews Rescue Many Tons Of Fish In Everglades

Thousands of tons of fish are being killed in the receding waters of south Florida, who were caught in pot holes, rock pits, ditches and other water places. The loss faced presents of a heavy one, so disastrous to the fish supply, that the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Department, took cognizance of it, and outlined a plan to save as many of the expiring fish as possible.

Chester Wright, conservation officer for this district, now has a crew of 15 men, who are edging out the captured or encoiled fish, and are transporting them to other waters. His crew is now working on the canals in Hendry County around Cleiston; other crews are working down in the Immokalee section. Report is that Lake Stafford, is alive with small size bass, and where they all came from is a mystery.

The seining-crews are saving all the game fish, but are destroying the gar, nucker and turkeys in great quantity, and hope to clean up the waters of these unscrupulous predatory fish.

Political Candidates Stir The Breezes In Glades With Oratory

One by one the leading candidates for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Florida, have been drifting into the Glades area in the interest of their respective campaigns, and all have been drawing fair sized crowds to hear their pronouncements.

The latest one to visit Belle Glade, was Fuller Warren, the loud voiced, attorney from Jacksonville, who appeared here on last Friday morning. The candidate is not unknown in this hinterland, so with the aid of W. L. Cunningham, his local manager, he was faced with a sizeable assemblage. Fuller, a noted for his speaking ability, and his topic of discussion being a personal one, he was at his best, and put a lot of fire into it. He devoted his time to discussing the planks of his platform, which have already had wide publicity in the daily press and through his political literature, and needed no extensive review.

Following the address, broadcast by Fuller's own voice, and his sound wagon equipment, the candidate spent some time visiting among the citizens. Lex Green, former congressman from Florida, now candidate for Railway Commissioner, also was a visitor in the city, last week, and devoted his time to visitation among the voters.

Local Crop Situation

Crops are looking good up at the prison farm, and soon the canning plant will be humming with activity. Already 5,000 gallon cans of beans have been packed, and the excellent crop of tomatoes coming on, will make a new packing record for that vegetable. Some of the finest lima beans ever grown in the Choctaw section were harvested from the Pee Wee Kirchman farm, Monday. He has ten acres out, and on the first picking, Monday, fifty laborers harvested nearly 800 hamper.

Cabbage still is in demand and the prices have gone up to and in excess of $2.50 the bag. Celery prospects and prices none too good. Beans are reaching the higher price bracket, and there are plenty of them going to market. Auction prices this week were good.

La Belle Legion Have Noted Speakers And Enjoy Fine Barbecue

Lowery Davis, officer in charge of the Veterans Administration office, West Palm Beach, attended the American Legion meeting held recently held in La Belle. Davis, who is inspecting the itinerant points and the service rendered by the VA spoke briefly on the many benefits available to veterans and their dependents. He urged a one-hundred percent membership in the post and pointed out that the benefits available today to veterans was made possible through the efforts of the American Legion and other service organizations.

Davis, who is active in the American Legion, spoke to approximately 200 persons, mostly veterans from La Belle and outlying communities. The Post Commander introduced Joseph E. Gum, also with the VA, who rendered service to the veterans of La Belle each Thursday. Gum, who has been with the VA for three years, is replacing Joseph E. Boyle, who is leaving the VA to enter private business.

The Post elected new officers who will be installed in the near future. After the election, the entire membership and the visitors enjoyed an old fashioned square dance and barbecue, with music furnished by local talent.

Be Careful To Read Labels On Your Medicine Cabinets

"Read the labels on drugs and medicines before taking them", Dr. Wilson T. Sowder, state health officer, warned this week.

He said that frequent reports are received of accidents, some of them fatal affecting people who carelessly take medicine without first reading the labels. "Equally dangerous", stressed Dr. Sowder, is taking medicine after the directions of the label, or the label itself, have been destroyed. Many people do this thinking that they can remember what the bottle contained.

Reaching for a bottle and taking medicine in the dark is another bad habit, he declared. Drugs and medicines should not be kept in kitchen cabinets, close to food supplies where they might easily be taken for food, Dr. Sowder emphasized. "Be sure you know what you are using and when in doubt—don't use it."

and in the percussion section, (vocalist and concert soloist for special effect. Some of these will come into the band in time, some of them it needs desperately and right now.

The band has worked quite hard this year. They have been to drill practice at least two mornings a week at 7:25 (the time most of us are arising) and many weeks, three to five mornings; band practice at night at least once a week, band practice during activity period at school, private practice at home, which the director requires, and added to that many members manage to take private lessons on Saturday. The band has done its part to be successful. What is needed now is support—all of which the townspeople can spare. They have to have backing, co-operation, spirit, and plenty of "boosting" from the folks at home.

The Rotary and Lions Clubs have been a great help to the band this year. The Lions Club has already raised $400 which has been set aside for a new bass horn. The Rotary Club is sponsoring a Band and Glee Club concert featuring the Norton Gallery Glee Club from West Palm Beach. Members of the Rotary will solicit donations from the business people all this week.

McGold is sponsoring the fine movie "Carnegie Hall". Proceeds from this will go directly to the band's instrument fund.

Band members will be on the job selling tickets to these programs. Buy them! Your support is needed. This means you.

"CHEVROLET and ONLY Chevrolet IS FIRST!"

You'll find that new front-end styling—new color—new and you more luxurious interior—new and still better the Big-Car beauty of Chevrolet bodies by Fisher. They're the world's best bodies, based only on Chevrolet and higher-priced cars.

You get more better performance economy from Chevrolet's world's famous V-8 engine. It has the best record of dependability of any automotive power plant. And V-8's—found only in Chevrolet and more expensive automobiles.

You and your family will have Big-Car safety, too. For Chevrolet brings you the three-field protection of Fisher's Unibody body-construction, the Knee-Action Ride, and Positive-Action Hydraulic Brakes—another combination of features found only in Chevrolet and more costly cars.

Yes, from one end of the country to the other, public enthusiasm for the new 1948 Chevrolet points to a great public conviction that CHEVROLET AND ONLY CHEVROLET IS FIRST in all-round value as in popularity. More people drive Chevrolets, according to official nationwide registrations and more people want Chevrolets, according to seven independent nationwide surveys than any other make of car. Your own judgment will tell you that this is because Chevrolet gives more value... because it alone offers BIG-CAR QUALITY AT LOWEST COST!
